Sisters of Providence

Single women ages 18-42 are invited to pray with the Sisters of Providence via Zoom, on November 7 from 7—7:45 pm EDT. Each month of prayer will focus on a universal topic led by a Sister of Providence. Attendees are welcomed and encouraged to bring prayer intentions and share personal experiences with the monthly theme. Sister Corbin Hannah, SP, will lead the November prayer on dealing with shame. Register online at Events.SistersofProvidence.org, or contact (361) 500 -9505 or jluna@spsmw.org.

Get to Know the Readings

The 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C reminds people that God sees all and will bring justice. The first reading warns that the wicked will be punished, but those who honor God will be blessed. This shows that faithfulness matters and that God rewards those who trust in Him.

The second reading highlights the importance of hard work. Paul teaches that people should not be idle but should contribute to their communities. Working with purpose is part of living a faithful life. Laziness leads to trouble, while effort brings good results. The Gospel speaks about trials and hardships. Jesus warns of future struggles, but He tells His followers not to be afraid. Those who stay strong in faith will be saved.

Supporting our Military

Our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS), next weekend, a collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to be taken every three years. The AMS provides pastoral care to Catholic men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled at a U.S. Military Academy, being treated as a patient at any of the 153 U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, or who work for the federal government beyond U.S. borders - including those from our own parish and diocese. The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military, and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. To learn more about the AMS, go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection

Silent Auction

On December 7 at Coffee and Donuts, we will be having a silent auction to raise money for the Providence Pantry. If you have an item that you would like to donate for the auction, please contact Robin or Elizabeth. Thank you!
