Notes from Barb:
 Next week Fr. Darvin will be on vacation and Fr. George Plaster will be celebrating the Mass with us.

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Genesis 3:9-15 The Blame Game

Sin brings out the worst in us. It comes from inner weakness. It produces the desire to cover it up. If others remain ignorant of our sin, they will think more kindly of us. So we hide the sin. Or we lie about it. Or we blame someone else. Sin brings out the worst.

When Adam and Eve talked with God about their sin, you could hear them trying to get off easy. They blamed someone else. Adam blamed Eve. Eve blamed the serpent. Neither of them accepted responsibility for their actions. The Book of Genesis remembers our first parents as pioneering, precious souls who lived and loved in paradise. But it also remembers the worst of them: the sin and the cover-up.

Thankfully, the story does not end there. God punishes the serpent, the ultimate source of temptation. Adam and Eve were responsible for their choices, but the serpent was responsible for the temptation. God sorted all this out.

God said to the serpent, "I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike at your head, while you strike at his heel."

In those words we Christians read a prophecy of the coming of Christ. He is the offspring, the Word made flesh, who defeats Satan and his heirs.

Yes, sin brings out the worst in us, but it brought out the best in God: our salvation in Jesus Christ.
